1

Hope is not a passive wish but an active, faith-filled expectation — like a slingshot pulled tight waiting to be released, filling the cracks of every unknown in our lives.

Jeremiah 29:11

“

Hope in the original language is a faith-filled expectation.

2

It is not over for your purpose — God's gifts and calling are irrevocable, you are His masterpiece, and failure is not final.

Romans 11:29

“

God has an outcome written for your life.

3

It is not over for your relationships — no addiction, sin, or broken marriage is too far gone for God to heal, as He works all things for good.

Romans 8:28

“

You are not disqualified. Failure is not final.

4

It is not over for your faith — even restlessness and wrestling with God is a GPS leading you back to Him, and He offers true rest for the soul.

Matthew 11:28

“

No addiction, no sin, no broken marriage is too far gone for him to heal.

5

The context of Jeremiah 29:11 — spoken during Israel's 70-year captivity — actually strengthens the promise: God's destiny cannot be stopped, and He restores double on the other side.

Zechariah 9:12

“

If you're wrestling right now with God, even if you're offended at Him, He is not offended at you.
