God is good to both believers and unbelievers, and we must choose to see and acknowledge
His goodness even in our most difficult trials.

Psalm 103:1-2

God is good. It's just that simple. I'm sure there's some of you sitting here today going, I don't know that He is good. But you're wrong. God is good. He's really good.

To bless the Lord with all that is within us requires seeing God as He truly is, not through our limited understanding or our own system of justice.

How often do we take time to think about God? What was the last time you spent one hour and all you did for that hour was thought about God — who He is, what He's promised, what He's done, how faithful He is, how deep is His love?

God has forgiven all our iniquity through Christ — the greatest reason to bless Him — and there is now no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus.

Romans 8:1

In order to take ourselves and give glory to God, to bless Him, to honor Him, if you will, in order for us to do that with all that is in us, we have to see Him.

God redeems us from life's pits, heals our diseases, and crowns us with faithful love and compassion that never changes.

Psalm 103:3-4

Your system of justice is nothing compared to the justice and the goodness of God.

We should not demand God act on our timetable — His justice always comes at the right time and in the right way, as demonstrated through Israel's 400 years in Egypt.

Psalm 103:6

We are the most blessed people alive, the most blessed people in the world. No one can take us from Him. Nothing can separate us from love of God that's in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God has not dealt with us as our sins deserve;
His love stretches as high as the heavens and
He removes our sin as far as east is from west.

Psalm 103:11-12

You really want to know if God loves you? Know that Jesus went to the cross and died for your sins that you might have life.

at 51:45

God has compassion because He knows we are dust — fragile, temporary, and utterly dependent on Him — yet His faithful love is from eternity to eternity.

Psalm 103:13-14

Don't pretend that you're something you're not. Know who God is and know that He's compassionate toward all of us because we need that.
