Men are specifically commanded to pray and lead in prayer, lifting up holy hands as an expression of dependence and praise

1 Timothy 2:8

“

Blessings are not found in selfishness. Blessings are found in godliness.

Prayer and worship require pure hearts -- anger and arguing disqualify us from effective communion with God

1 Timothy 2:8

“

If you don't know how to pray, that's because you haven't been praying. And you don't even understand the purpose of prayer. Prayer is simply communicating with God.

3

Women are to prioritize inner godliness and good works over outward appearance when coming to worship

1 Timothy 2:9-10

“

You being shy is no excuse for you being ungodly.

4

God has established distinct roles for men and women in corporate worship, rooted in creation order, not cultural norms

1 Timothy 2:12-13

“

We don't get to say, lifting up hands is something we don't have to do because it wasn't designed for us today.

5

Submission in this context is to the Word of God, not to the domination of men, and the church was actually liberating for women in the ancient world

1 Timothy 2:11

“

This whole passage is not about men, it's not about women, it's about us acknowledging him and worshiping him the way he deserves to be worshipped.

6

True worship is not about promoting our rights or ourselves but about honoring Christ who gave Himself for us

Romans 5:8

“

It's not about us. It's really about him. It's about worshiping him the way we should worship him. It's not about promoting our rights. It's not about promoting ourselves.
