The resurrection is integral to the gospel;
without it, faith is futile and believers remain
dead in their sins

1 Corinthians 15:16-17

If Christ is still dead, if Christ is still in a tomb somewhere, then you and I, there are so many better things we could be doing.

Our current bodies are like seeds sown into the ground; what God raises will be far more magnificent than what was planted

1 Corinthians 15:36-38

Our body's like a seed sown into the ground. And what comes out of the ground when we're raised is even more beautiful and far more glorious and magnificent than we can even try to understand or fathom.

3

The natural body is sown perishable, dishonorable, and weak, but is raised imperishable, glorious, and powerful as a spiritual body

If God could create things that are so unique and wonderful in this creation, who's to say he couldn't create something far more unique and far more wonderful in his recreation?

at 15:17

4

All people are 'people of the dust' through Adam, but through faith in Christ they become 'people of heaven' who will bear the image of the man of heaven

“

You don't make Jesus Lord. Jesus is Lord, period. You don't make Jesus the Lord of your life. Jesus is the Lord of your life. Will you agree with him or not?

at 28:29

5

The blessed hope of resurrection frees believers from grieving without hope and empowers them to encourage one another with the promise of eternal communion with Christ

1 Thessalonians 4:17-18

They are not lost. They are sown.
