Our perishable, sin-tainted bodies cannot inherit the kingdom of God, so believers must be transformed — a mystery we humbly trust God to accomplish

1 Corinthians 15:50-52

Don't forget who wins in the end. Don't forget what's coming. Don't forget the promises I have made both to you and anyone that has put their faith in me in the past. And don't forget where we're going to end up.

Death is swallowed up in victory through Jesus Christ — one day it will have no sting and no hold on believers

If there was a mystery to Paul, inspired by the Holy Spirit, writing God's inerrant word, here's what this guy's not going to do. Tell you what that mystery is and give you my opinion on it.

The law was designed to expose our inability to achieve righteousness on our own, driving us to put our faith in Christ alone rather than self-effort

Galatians 3:23-25

The whole purpose of the law was meant to give you every opportunity to live up to it. And every time you failed to look at God and go, God, I failed again. I can't do this on my own. And God to say exactly, that's why I sent Jesus.

Victory comes entirely through Jesus Christ, not through human effort or religious performance — on our worst and best days alike

1 Corinthians 15:57

God chooses to love me in spite of me. It's because of who he is.

Because we know the final outcome, believers are called to be steadfast, immovable, and always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing their labor is never in vain

God does his greatest work when we feel like our back is against the wall.
