Wanting God must become a constant posture of the heart woven into every moment, not something reserved for special services or prayer events.

1 Kings 18:21

“

What we need to do is to put a desire for God in all the things that are already in our flow.

When God comes in His glory, everything that is not God is consumed — His fire does not politely negotiate for space at our table.

1 Kings 18:38-39

“

When God comes, everything that is not God is consumed in the light of His glory.

To want God requires a definitive choice — we must stop wavering (limping) between devotion to God and dependence on idols.

1 Kings 18:21

“

God does not move into situations that go, okay, yeah, can I just get a little edge on the table there? Hey, how's everybody? Now, he comes in in his glory and he says, I'm not sharing my glory with anybody.

Faith means being all in with no plan B, putting everything on the altar and doubling down on consecration just as Elijah soaked the sacrifice three times.

“

*He said, no, do it again. Everybody see that? Do it again.
Everybody see that? Do it again.*

God has always been all in — the Hebrew word 'pasakh' connects Elijah's challenge on Carmel to God's decisive Passover, pointing ultimately to Christ as the final sacrifice.

Exodus 12:13

“

If God doesn't come through, there is no coming through. If God isn't a promise keeper, then I am out on a limb with no net.
