All have sinned and missed the mark of God's glory, resulting in spiritual death, not merely moral failure

Romans 3:23

Sin does not make you a bad person, sin makes you a spiritually dead person.

2

Religion, summed up in the word 'do,' can never bridge the gap because dead people cannot earn their way back to God

Romans 3:20

And that's religion. You keep trying and doing and adding and subtracting and padding but you're no closer to the perfection of God than when you started.

The 'glorious comma' after Romans 3:23 leads to justification — being made righteous freely by God's grace through the redemption in Christ Jesus

Romans 3:24

The enemy has sold us half of the truth. Now understand, the half of the truth that we've got is 100% true. It's just not 100% of the truth.

at 22:14

4

Justification is not a future hope but a present identity — believers are not just sinners saved by grace but new creations made righteous in Christ

Romans 3:22

I am definitely not just a sinner, I am alive in Christ. I am not even just a sinner saved by grace. I am a sinner saved by grace justified in Christ a new creation and a new position with God.

5

The blood of Jesus, foreshadowed by the animal sacrifice in Eden, is the only means of being made holy, righteous, and justified before God

Genesis 3:21

They don't do the right thing to try to become the right thing. They do the right thing because they've been made the right thing.
